
What is the "Mass"?

The Mass is a blasphemous liturgical ceremony in which the false "Jesus" of the Roman Catholic Church is sacrificed over and over again for the lost multitudes who believe the lies taught to them by the false pagan priests of the Whore of Babylon. I realize that is a pretty serious statement, so please let me explain...

This is how Wikipedia explains the definition of the "Mass":

The Council of Trent reaffirmed traditional Christian teaching that the Mass is the same Sacrifice of Calvary offered in an unbloody manner: "The victim is one and the same: the same now offers through the ministry of priests, who then offered himself on the cross; only the manner of offering is different. And since in this divine sacrifice which is celebrated in the Mass, the same Christ who offered himself once in a bloody manner on the altar of the cross is contained and offered in an unbloody manner... this sacrifice is truly propitiatory" (Doctrina de ss. Missae sacrificio, c. 2, quoted in Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1367).

This clearly states that:

- 1) the sacrifice of the Mass is believed to be the same as the sacrifice of Christ on Calvary, and
- 2) the sacrifice is propitiatory (which means effectual as a substitutionary sacrifice for sinners).

The Catholic Catechism states:

1367 The sacrifice of Christ and the sacrifice of the Eucharist are one single sacrifice: "The victim is one and the same: the same now offers through the ministry of priests, who then offered himself on the cross; only the manner of offering is different." "And since in this divine sacrifice which is celebrated in the Mass, the same Christ who offered himself once in a bloody manner on the altar of the cross is contained and is offered in an unbloody manner. . . this sacrifice is truly propitiatory."190

1376 The Council of Trent summarizes the Catholic faith by declaring: "Because Christ our Redeemer said that it was truly his body that he was offering under the species of bread, it has always been the conviction of the Church of God, and this holy Council now declares again, that by the consecration of the bread and wine there takes place a change of the whole substance of the bread into the substance of the body of Christ our Lord and of the whole substance of the wine into the substance of his blood. This change the holy Catholic Church has fittingly and properly called transubstantiation."206

1377 The Eucharistic presence of Christ begins at the moment of the consecration and endures as long as the Eucharistic species subsist. Christ is present whole and entire in each of the species and whole and entire in each of their parts, in such a way that the breaking of the bread does not divide Christ.207

1378 Worship of the Eucharist. In the liturgy of the Mass we express our faith in the real presence of Christ under the species of bread and wine by, among other ways, genuflecting or bowing deeply as a sign of adoration of the Lord. "The Catholic Church has always offered and still offers to the sacrament of the Eucharist the cult of adoration, not only during Mass, but also outside of it, reserving the consecrated hosts with the utmost care, exposing them to the solemn veneration of the faithful, and carrying them in procession." 208

Allright, so what does all this mean?

Simply this:

That the "Jesus" of the Roman Catholic Church is the piece of bread that they put into a golden sun-shaped object on a staff, parade through the town and worship, and then eat, thinking that they are "receiving Christ" when they do it...

The Golden staff with a sun-shaped head is called a Monstrance. It is indicative of the Roman sun worship which is at the root of the pagan rites of the Roman Catholic church.

The little round wafer that they call the "host" is so called because it is the "victim" of an "unbloody sacrifice". The latin word for "victim" is "hostia", and that is what they call the wafer, which they think is magically turned into the actual body and blood of Jesus Christ by means of a process performed by the pagan priests called "transubstantiation".

(Is it any wonder that the heart of this religion of sorcery is called the "Vatican", which is a Latin word for "The place of divination"?)

So, when the pagan priests perform the transubstantiation trick, the wafer in the monstrance has supposedly turned into Jesus Christ, and the Catholic religion states that anybody that doesn't believe that is "anathema", which means "accursed of God", and thereby separated from the "Church"; which to a Catholic is damnation, because they are taught that the "Church" is their only hope of salvation from hell...

The Catholic Church refers to the Mass as the "unbloody sacrifice" because it is their false Jesus being sacrificed over and over again for their sins. That is why the Roman Catholic Jesus is perpetually dying on a cross (the Roman Catholic crucifix).

The crucifix is a graven image that is an abomination to God.

The second commandment that God gave on mount Sinai says,

"Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image...".

Exodus 20:4

The scripture also says in Deuteronomy 7:25,26,

"The graven images of their gods (the gods of the Canaanites) shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God. Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is an accursed thing."

That means that this Catholic graven image of a man dying on a cross is an abomination to the living God, and we are not only commanded not to desire or possess it, but also to abhor it, and never to allow it into our house!

And sadly, so many millions of the deceived not only have these images, but pray to them, and bow down to them. But they are not God. And neither is a little round piece of bread...

In times past there were many brave disciples of Christ which were burned alive for not taking the Mass.

These were people who got hold of the scriptures during the reformation period, and found out that Jesus Christ was sacrificed once for all (Hebrews 10:10), and that the abomination of the Mass was not the "Lord's Supper"...

(The "Lord's Supper" [1 Corinthians 11:20] is an ordinance that Jesus gave to his disciples before his suffering, for them to partake of regularly in remembrance of him, to remember his death until he comes again--1 Corinthians 11:24-26),

...but rather a blasphemous ritual wherein their false Jesus was being crucified again and again for their sins! When I was a child, we were taught in school that these were witch burnings--They told us that these were Christians burning witches in Salem...but first of all, there is no command in the New Testament for Christians to burn witches--or anyone--, and secondly, these were not Christians burning witches; they were Catholics burning Christians, because these worthy men and women of God rightly refused to partake of the false sacrifice of the Mass! They would dress these saints up in robes and hats with pictures of witches on them, tie their hands, and sometimes tie their tongues so they could not speak, and then walk them through the town proclaiming that they were hereticks and witches. Then they tied them to the stakes, assembled the fagots round about their feet to burn them, and gave them one last chance to take the Mass. They would hold up the little round piece of bread that they believed was Jesus Christ, and say, "Will you receive the Mass, heretick?" And these saints would tell them that the piece of bread they were holding is not Jesus Christ, but that the real Jesus Christ is risen from the dead and seated on the right hand of God in heaven. Then they would condemn them as hereticks and burn them.

That's what really happened...

The Mass is not a Christian ordinance. It is wholly a pagan practice, built on pagan principles, and has absolutely nothing to do with Jesus Christ or his church. Jesus Christ is not perpetually dying, as the Roman religion portrays him to be. He was sacrificed once for all, and is risen from the dead incorruptible!

The Roman Catholic Jesus is forever dying, and is portrayed as such in the abominable graven image of the Catholics called the crucifix; and the "Mass" is the "unbloody sacrifice" of their false Jesus, which is in reality a piece of bread which they ignorantly worship and then eat as if they were "receiving Christ", which is precisely what they believe they are doing.

This is why God hates the Mass, and it is an abominable thing to him, because it is a mockery of his great sacrifice for the world. And the Bible says explicitly that all who partake of this abomination are,

"...eating and drinking damnation to themselves"
(1 Corinthians 11:29),

and to their generations
(Deuteronomy 5:9)!

Is it any wonder that generations of Catholic people wind up with so many curses in their families (violence, poverty, homosexuality, bad marriages, demon possession, drug and alcohol addiction, gangs, etc...)?

The Bible says,

"A just man walketh in his integrity, and his children are blessed after him."

(Proverbs 20:7).

But how can we expect our children to be blessed if we constantly, week after week, partake in the abominations of the Roman Whore which God Almighty has declared that he hates?

How can we imagine that Jesus Christ is a little round wafer just because a priest said he made it to be so with his "special powers", and think that Jesus Christ will be sacrificed repeatedly for our sins, and then be surprised when the heavens are shut to our prayers, and the curse of God comes upon us, our house, and our generations?

But that curse can be broken.

How?

Stop it!

The Bible says in the book of Ezekiel,

"But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right,
he shall surely live, he shall not die.

All his transgressions that he hath committed,
they shall not be mentioned unto him:
in his righteousness that he hath done shall he live.

Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die?
saith the LORD GOD:
and not that he should return from his ways,
and live?"

(Ezekiel 18:21-23)

---and---

"Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost; For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call."

(Acts 2:38,39)

If you have been a partaker of the terrible blasphemy of the Catholic Mass, repent now, and obey the gospel of Christ, and God will forgive you, and the curse will be lifted from you and your house. Then read his word every day and set your heart to obey it as it is written (the King James Bible if you read English), and you will be blessed.

God is real, friend. You will not find him in the wafer at the mass, nor will you find him anywhere in the Catholic church; you will not find him in the Protestant churches, either. You will not find him in theology, or religion, or philosophy. You will only find him by seeking him in his word and earnest prayer with a willing and an obedient heart.

"Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD:

though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow;

though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword:

for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it."

(Isaiah 1:18-20)

Grace and peace be unto all them that love the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity.

Maranatha!

AMEN.
